Memorials

So sorry to hear about this! The world has lost a great man for sure. As I read through these messages it is clear that he was truly loved by his family and all he came to know. I will miss our coffee shop talks about anything and everything that was on our minds. He had a gift of knowledge about almost anything and didn't seem to mind me picking his brain on occasion. I wish we had time for one more cup of coffee together. Prayers and God bless his family!

Uncle Able was a friend to me. I will miss his laugh and definitely his jokes. Love you Tio. To the family, our prayers are with you always.

ERIC ROSS AND FAMILY, NOVEMBER 22, 2021

Dad, it is so hard to say goodbye. The only thing that brings me peace is knowing you are in heaven. God called home a great man, and we are all devastated and extremely sad. I know that you will live on in our memories forever., but I wish we had more time. I will miss our deep discussions at the kitchen table about God and solving the world problems. I will miss you dropping by the house to visit. The kids miss their Papi, and Isabel has asked that we save your seat for Sunday breakfast. I love you so much, and life will not be the same without you here. I am blessed to have known you and honored that you allowed me to call you Dad. I love you and a piece of my heart has gone with you to heaven. Until we meet again. I love you Dad.

NINA LOPEZ, NOVEMBER 20, 2021

Lalito, I can't believe you're gone. I thank God for the short time we had together. I'll never forget the telephone phone call on a beautiful summer day in 1995 that brought us together for the first time that December. I was so excited to be meeting my big brother. I'm going to miss your stories about your life, your boys, your daughter, your grand babies. You were so proud of them all. What I will miss most was how loving you were with me. I will always cherish my memories of you and carry you forever in my heart. Until we meet again Lalito. I love you!

Dad, I'm thankful for the time I did have with you, for the wisdom you shared and the things you taught me. You always had an answer or solution for anything. Just want to say thank you pops. I will be the best man I can be and honor you. I love you daddy, going to miss you but I have comfort and peace because of the discussion we had about death. Goodbye for now but not forever until we meet again.

TINA SHULTS , NOVEMBER 18, 2021

My sweet Papi, I love you so much. You are a true hero, a man who would do anything to help someone. You were an inspiration to me and showed me how to be a "true Latina". We share so many memories, I will never forget. Things like: Playing in the living room, Having family BBQs, bike rides, and all the encouraging words that you have said to me over the years. You are a true man of god and I know you are in gods kingdom, in the safety of his love. I miss our breakfast dates and meeting your different friends. I have the best memories with you and Dad at Talamantez Automotive. It was all the little things you did that made an impression in my heart forever. You are one of the best, Papi. I love you so much. The world has lost a man that could do it all, while God has gained a soul worthy of his love. One day we will meet again, and I hope to see you in those boots I used to put on as a little girl. I love you forever -Haley

HALEY, NOVEMBER 18, 2021

Te amo muchísimo papi. I will forever miss you and I feel like there is a hole in my heart. I loved when you came over for Sunday brunch and always asked me to make you a sweet tea, and while I would be making it you would tell me how you didn't need the sugar and caffeine. I know you will love it in heaven. Ask God all the questions you can about the Bible, and have an amazing time there. I know we will all see each other again one day, but until then I love you and miss you.

GABRIELLA TALAMANTEZ , NOVEMBER 18, 2021

Dad, No words can begin to describe the emptiness within. My mentor, advisor, best friend but more than anything my hero. If I can aspire to be half the man you were in my life time than I would be one of the good ones. I love you more than any words can say. I will always keep you close. It's not goodbye but instead it's- till I see you again... Love you old man.

ABEL, NOVEMBER 18, 2021

Abel was a man that gave himself to others. His family was everything to him. He was a brother to me and an uncle to my girls. He has watched over us since my husband passed in 2008. I love you and will miss you my friend and brother.
