We shared the same birth date. He was a well-intentioned friend who tried to help others in any way he could. Although, it was a short time that I knew him, we trusted the other completely. I will miss our intense conversations on topics like relationships, ethics, psychology, sincerity, etc. I pray your heart is free from the burdens that weighed your heart down in this life. Rest in peace.

Abraham borunda was a great friend. We may have hung out a short time but you made an impact on me and I will never forget you. My only regret is that we never followed through on us catching up in Dallas with our wives and hanging out. I wish I would have reached out more and dug deeper into your life. Much love brother may you RIP. I will keep your family in my prayers. Until we meet again.

ERIC FLORES , APRIL 30, 2020

In the brief times that I have had a chance to be around Stephanie and Abraham, he was always kind, caring and just a good person. He welcomed everyone and never judged. Ive only ever known Abraham to love his wife and children. He never fell short of that. Im saddened to see those that love him now face a new path without him and hope that God will bring comfort to Stephanie & the kids and his family. May he rest in peace and God hold him in his glory, for there is no better place than by his side.
