Memorials

I wanted to share my deepest condolences with Alyne's family. It is obvious that She was a great person to be around. It takes a very noble person to be spoken highly of by others. This is not an easy time, i know, but there is hope. Our Creator promises us something wonderful at Revelation 21:3,4. I sincerely hope you will find encouragement and comfort there.

ROBERT J MILE, MAY 31, 2010

Lloyd and Alyne were our dear neighbors on Westmoreland street 25 years ago. We lived by them for 10 years. No one could ask for sweeter people.

*They are in our hearts and memories as long as we are on this earth.
Wonderful couple remembered with such fondness today. Love, Sandy and Chick Templin*

SANDRA TEMPLIN, MAY 27, 2010

I remember Allyne from King Memorial Baptist Church in McKinney. She and Lloyd were always there and both such sweet people. I also remember how good she was to visit my Mom at home after Mom could not attend church anymore because of her health problems. Allyne will have many stars in her crown and is now in Heaven where she is rejoicing with the saints up there. I was truly greatly blessed to have known her.
