Memorials

It was a pleasure knowing Barbara, a smile that lit up room and a sneaky sense of humor that will catch you off-guard. When I met her, she was so happy and was full of energy. She took the time to walk us around her new community and showed us all the different activities that she partook in daily. From the new coffee machines in the welcome area, to her new plants in the recreational area, and all her dinner friends in the dining room. Sometimes you don't need to know someone for a long time to really know who they were. The way she looked at her grandchildren with love and adoration and her daughters with pride touched my soul. Her strength helped her fight through the pain and suffering in the end, but I'm so happy that she's finally in a better place and can rest easy!
