Larry, we are praying for you at this time. There is comfort in knowing that she is now rejoicing on the streets of glory. No more pain or suffering. The Lord is coming soon and we can rejoice with her.

You will be missed. I am glad she is at rest with Jesus, her Savior and what she has lived and spoken about for years. I didn't get to see you often, but you always radiated Jesus. Glad you are with Jesus, your Dad and little girl who has grown up to be a fine young lady, also Grandmother that loved you very much, I bet she was surprised to see you so soon, but the "Welcome Home" mat was out for you at the gate. Prayers for your Mother, Sister and Brother, and children that all adored you. Aunt Mary

MARY PAYNE HARRIS, , MARCH 14, 2019
