Aunt Beulah I Remember I remember when you would hold me tight Before I'd sleep, we said a prayer at night I remember when you would tuck me in Kiss my cheek before dreams would begin I remember when you would hold my hand Keep me from harm and beside me stand I remember when you would push my swing I loved you more than anything I remember you said how said you'd be If anything should ever happen to me I remember when we both would cry When it came the time to say goodbye I don't remember you saying what to do As the time comes I should lose you
