LOIS JEAN HEAD, JANUARY 19, 2005

I have fond memories of your Mother from going to church with your family at Branch. They go back many years and include your Dad. I guess the best one is when the family moved into your community with the lions and she didn't want to go to the mail box. I can close my eyes and see her and Mama sitting in the front pews of church. I will be thinking of you during this time but my health will not allow me to attend the services. Patricia & Ronnie Hay
