Memorials

Mick was my boss for many years when I worked at Mead Johnson. He was certainly a unique person and through his Marine Corps style of management, we learned to "handle it." We had fun times together plus he taught me many things about sales. Doris, I know you miss him. Please accept my deepest sympathy for your loss. Susan Nicholson, January 5, 2017.

SUSAN NICHOLSON, JANUARY 5, 2017

Friends for a long time. Rest in peace.

STEVE AND JAN MARRS, NOVEMBER 10, 2016

I am so sorry for your loss. Thirty years ago when my son was born premature, Mick & Doris provided me special baby formula for my premature son at a time when I could not afford it. He was a Godsend and I know he is getting special attention in Heaen for all his kndness to everyone he knew.

DIANE KILBORN, NOVEMBER 8, 2016

I never had the great honor to meet Mick, though I had so much to say and thank him for. I know him through my amazing fiancé, and his granddaughter, Brittany. He is very much alive in our hearts and there won't be a day that goes by that I won't thank him for letting me take care of his beautiful granddaughter forever. My condolences and prayers go out to the family and loved ones of this amazing man. May god bless you all.

DEAN WHITEAKER , NOVEMBER 8, 2016

My most favorite memory of Mick is when I visited Amy's family for the first time while she and I were roommates in college. He was the first 'grown-up' to treat me like I was an adult, instead of a gawky 18 year old, which meant so much to me. I've tried to emulate that with my own children's friends. Doris, Amy, Mike, Lisa, and the rest of the family: I read the following just recently and want to share it with you: "Grief is really love. It's all the love you want to give but cannot give. The more you loved someone, the more you grieve. All of that unspent love gathers up in the corners of your eyes and in that part of your chest that gets empty and hollow feeling. The happiness of love turns to sadness when unspent. Grief is just love with no place to go." (quoted by Jamie) God bless you all as you grieve, and may He help you find a new way to spend your love for Mick in other meaningful ways. Love, Kacey

KACEY CLAIBORNE, NOVEMBER 8, 2016

My sincere condolences for your loss. May God comfort your grieving hearts as you face the days ahead. 2Cor 1: 3,4

TRACEY, NOVEMBER 8, 2016

Doris and Amy, I am so sorry for your loss and so thankful you were able to be there with him when he went home to be with the Lord. Prayers and comfort to you all.

MICHELLE LANE, NOVEMBER 7, 2016

Dear Doris: Sorry to hear about Mick's passing and your loss of your best friend. God Bless you and keep you in his care. Virginia and Tom Faber your neighbor

VIRGINIA FABER, NOVEMBER 7, 2016

I was so sorry to hear of Mick's passing. You certainly have my sympathy and the family is in my prayers. I have such great memories of Mick and his family as we were neighbors in Easton, KS when we were growing up. One was Mick killing a rattlesnake in our yard after his mother was trying to kill it with a hammer. Mick's younger brother, Fred, and I were best friends as kids. Go Jayhawks!

GARY STAFFORD, NOVEMBER 7, 2016

I did not have the honor of meeting you sir, but your granddaughter Brittany talked about you all the time. I do know that a wonderful man will be truly missed by family and friends and I pray for them all. May God comfort and keep your beautiful family during this time and may you sir rest in beautiful peace. Love Always, Stacie Doss

STACIE DOSS, NOVEMBER 6, 2016

Friend and fellow Marine. May you always have fair winds and following seas.

WALT SCHMICK, NOVEMBER 6, 2016

That picture is exactly as I remember him! Such a great neighbor back in the day. Sending love and prayers to the family.
