Memorials

Carl was a good man- full of joy. Blessed to have known him my whole life. He was my dad's (Neil Davis) best friend, and was always so kind to me and to my family. Sad to learn of his passing, and my thoughts and prayers are with his family. Comforting to think about Carl and my dad driving around in a shiny car- carefree and laughing up in heaven.

He sounds like a wonderful, very loving and loved handsome young man. I know he will be met by his beautiful family and a grand reunion will be in progress. Rest peacefully.

Neil Davis loved Carl like a brother, and my hope is that they have now been reunited. Our children, Rachel, Don, and Cotton (and also our grandson, Trey), have wonderful memories of Carl. He was always kind and patient with them as they were growing up. We are all praying for comfort for Carl's family.
