We quite often referred to Chad as "our miracle boy" because of his passion for life and for beating the odds against him. He truly was inspirational to us and now he will work his magic from a new dimension. He will never stop helping and loving people; he will just be doing it from his new home. May God bless his family and help them in their time of need. Love Deb & Brian Calder (Canada)

ABBY DAVIS, APRIL 8, 2016

I am so sorry for your loss. I pray God gives the family strength and comfort. He Only Takes the Best. God saw that he was getting tired, A cure was not to be. So He put His arms around him and whispered, "Come with Me." With tearful eyes, we watched him suffer, And saw him fade away. Although we loved him dearly, We could not make him stay. A golden heart stopped beating, Hard working hands to rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us He only takes "the best". Love Uncle Greg & Galyn Ned

UNCLE GREG & GALYN NED, APRIL 8, 2016

I worked with Chad for a short period of time and I always enjoyed hardy laughs and just simply talking with Chad... the conversation usually ended on the topic of FOOD AND GRILLING (just as it should). Rhonda, I know this is extremely hard for all of you. Please let your family know that Christina and I are sincerely with you all during the loss of Chad. It's our sincere hope that Chad's memory will be cherished as deeply as his love for his family. Brian and Christina Voss
