

Christina Marie Morris

July 25, 1991 - August 30, 2014

To know Christina Marie Morris, you need to know her favorite quote by idol James Dean: “Dream as if you’ll live forever, live as if you’ll die today.”

Although she was taken from us far too soon, just one month after celebrating her 23rd birthday, she continues to change countless lives for the better. She is greatly missed and will never be forgotten.

It’s time to celebrate her life and the joy that she brought to everyone around her. A public memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday, April 21, 2018, at First Baptist Church in Allen. A private burial service will be at Ridgeview Memorial Park in Allen.

Christina lived life to the fullest and always encouraged people to be the best possible version of themselves. She embraced everyone’s uniqueness, often recognizing their potential even when they didn’t. She always pushed others to fulfill their dreams and never give up.

She was always ready to make people laugh, whether with silly faces or crazy costumes. And then there was the way she told stories, transforming the most mundane things into animated tales of wild adventures. To Christina, there were no small things. Everything was important.

The young woman with a dazzling smile and big hugs never met a stranger. Her happiness was big. Her sadness was big. Everything in life was big.

Ask friends to describe her and you’ll hear a wide range: goofy, quirky, fashionista, stubborn, fun-loving, passionate, energetic, strong, creative, active, open, summer-loving, spunky and driven. She strived to do her best in everything she did. There was always a sense of urgency about her. She was a tiny girl but had the biggest heart.

“She was the epitome of a true friend and one of the most genuine people I have ever met,” one friend said.

To her friends: Christina continues to speak to us. Listen for her voice and hear her pushing you to be the very best you. Never underestimate what you're capable of achieving. She is never far away, and she'll always be your biggest cheerleader.

Christina Marie Morris was born July 25, 1991, in Wylie, Texas. She grew up in Allen and graduated from Allen High School in 2009. She graduated from the University of Texas at Dallas in 2013 with a bachelor's degree in marketing.

Her disappearance on Aug. 30, 2014, brought together a diverse group of people who have become a family. They embody her selfless spirit and her "never give up" attitude, and are affectionately known as Team Christina.

After three and a half years spent searching, posting flyers, and praying, Christina was found March 7, 2018, in Anna, Texas.

Survivors include her parents Mark and Anna Morris of Allen and Jonni Hare of Tyler; sister Sarah Estes and brother-in-law Patrick Estes of Carrollton; brother Jacob Morris of Allen; grandparents David and Linda Morris of McKinney, Carol and Be Reynolds of Tyler, Carol and John Hare of Sanford, Fla., and Vikki Marshall of Tatum; aunts and uncles Tracy and Rob Danly of Little Elm, Bobbi and Joseph Ferrandino of Valparaiso, Ind., Jill Thurman and Hunter Hubbard of Enterprise, Fla., Ronald and Stephanie Shivers of Las Vegas, Nev., Donald and Shanon Shivers of Fort Mill, S.C., Dora and Daniel Brindle of Merriam Island, Fla., Peggy and Chris Marlette of Sanford, Fla., and Kayraen Reeks of Marshall; her beloved beagle Madden; and many dear cousins and best friends.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Christina's memory to First Baptist Church in Allen or a charity of choice.

We can't fill this empty space that she's left in our hearts, but we can keep her spirit alive. Make someone smile for her today. Lend a helping hand.

And don't stop saying her name. Tell her stories. Laugh. And be proud and thankful to have been a part of her life.

"Make the most of the time you have and don't sweat the little things," Christina once wrote. "Life is too short."

Memorials

To the family and friends of Christina, this story really impacted me. I've watched many episodes of Dateline but something about her just really got to me. I knew when the episode ended I had to see if she had been found, when I read the news articles my stomach dropped and tears filled my eyes. How can a complete stranger have this much of an effect on someone? I still don't know but I think Christina knows. I will continue her legacy of giving to others and always hugging people even as a complete stranger. Although after reading her obituary, I am no longer a stranger....what a unique outlook on life she had. I hope this message gets to the family and friends of Christina because I want them all to know that my heart aches for you all too. What a beautiful spirit and uplifting soul, may she rest in peace with that infectious smile.

DONNA, APRIL 23, 2018

I've been following Christina's story since the news broke of her disappearance through her discovery. While I didn't personally know Christina, I feel like over the past 3.5 years I got to know more about her and the sweet, caring, and loving girl that she truly was. She left a positive impact in so many lives. Even though it's a very sad and unfortunate situation, it's comforting to know Christina is in a much better place in heaven. It's my prayer that God continues to provide his love, peace, and comfort. RIP Christina and May God bless.

who touched so many lives in so many ways i love u both with all my heart forever and ever

CAT ANDRESEN, APRIL 21, 2018

You didn't need to know Christina personally to know she was an incredibly special woman. I live in Australia and have never met her or anyone touched by her but I feel how loved and missed she is. Christina touched so many lives and her absence leaves a deep hole of grief for those people. However, I know with all my heart that Christina's love is so powerful and enduring that she will help each and every person find their way to joy again. Her winning smile and enthusiastic personality demanded that everyone love life as much as she obviously did. In her honour, everyone will find a way. See the beauty around you and you'll see her. Listen to someone laugh and you'll hear her. Celebrate the victories and know she is cheering right along side you. That is just who she was. Thank you for the opportunity to get to know her. I mourn with you but embrace the peace that now, after all this time, she is free to fly and I can just imagine the beaming smile she is wearing while she does! God Bless You All!

TAMMY RESAR, APRIL 20, 2018

I remember that summer day in 1991 like it was yesterday. Jonni came into the little Allen Walmart (back then it was where the Sears Outlet is now) she had a big smile and a big tummy. When I asked her when she was due her smile got even bigger as she told me "Today!" She giggled & giggled as all the eyes of us working up at the front of the store that day got as big as saucers. She told me she was headed to the fabric department (which was at the very back left corner of the store--so yes, I called one of the elderly ladies who worked back there & asked them to please keep a protective eye on her). After Jonni took her time shopping, she enjoyed laughing at us all again as we all (in unison) gave a sigh of relief & sent her with best wishes on out of the store. She promised she would come back soon & show us her new baby. It wasn't very many days later that in walked a proud Mark carrying a beautiful baby Christina with Jonni (and that day-brightening smile of hers) walking by his side. Of course we all oohed & ahed over Christina & laughed about Jonni coming in to shop on her due date & how we had all smiled but secretly hoped it was going to be a very short & "uneventful" shopping trip! Over the years as Christina grew up, I would run into Jonni in various places, she would update me on Christina & we would laugh as we re-told of her "due date shopping trip" to anyone that would happen to be by us. Those are more happy memories for y'all to hold on to. Those are the ones I'm going to try to keep with me-the good,happy ones-the ones that make me smile. I will never forget that happy day. I will never forget this family. You all have been in our thoughts & prayers every day through this horrible time. My family & I send our deepest condolences to your entire family & to every one who loved & cared about

Christina. I wish there was something I could say or do to make this better but sadly, there is nothing. I'm just so very sorry that this has happened-more than I can ever express. I just want you all to know that you will continue to be in our thoughts & prayers--forever! Christina will never be forgotten! Jonni & Mark, I SINCERELY pray that God gives you peace as you continue on life's journey without being to physically touch your precious Christina. Just remember her spirit will ALWAYS be with you both. Love, Tiffany

I first heard about Christina's story on disappeared. I remember it deeply saddened me... She had such a lovely smile. My heart breaks for her parents, friends and family. There are no words that could possibly bring comfort to each and every one of you. 23 years couldn't possibly be enough time to spend with a more beautiful person. I pray God wraps his loving arms around each of you, and gives you the strength, courage, and comfort to deal with this great loss. Sincerely, Tasha Virginia
