With profound sadness, we announce the passing of Eugene Jay Dalbo, age 68, of The Colony, Texas, on March 6, 2019. A beloved and dedicated family man, Jay is survived by his wife of 46 years, Peggy Dalbo; four children, Christy Baxter-Teague and her husband, Bryan, Tracey Stevens and her husband Ron, Ashley Rue-Whitfield and her husband, Mo, Tony Dalbo and his wife, Kimberly. He was a cherished "Papa" to the pride and joys of his life, his thirteen grandchildren, Taylor, Will, Jake, Dominic, Paige, Bryce, Jaxon, Shelby, Tyler, Luke, Maurice, Brandon and Cameron. Jay is also a loved uncle to Janine and Scott Craig and their families as well as an adored "father" to his Italian children Martina Bergonzi and Luca Raimondi.

Dear Jay, you were a very important person in my brother's life and I can't help but remember the welcome you gave me when we met at your home in The Colony. I will always keep in my heart the memory of a good, generous and cheerful person. A hug to the whole Dalbo family from our Italian family.

ELENA, MARCH 14, 2019

"Benvenuto!" With this word in Italian, printed on a colourful placard, you enthusiastically welcomed me in your house and, most of all, in yours and your family's life. During those joyful, wonderful six months we became family, and despite the distance we never ceased to be, for family, like home, is truly where the heart is. Your generosity, unconstrained love, and enduring support will always accompany me. Riposa in pace, Jay, e veglia dall'alto su Peggy e sulla tua grande e bella famiglia.

It is with a heavy heart that I learned of Jay's passing. Jay was a quiet man with a big heart especially when it came to his family. He's now reunited with Peggy, Mary and Pete. RIP my cousin. May your family take comfort in the many memories your family has. Mo

To Jay, my friend, my Best Man, my brother. We have been a part of each others lives for over 60 years. Through good times and not so good you have always been there for me. I will miss those phone calls in the middle of the day just to chat. Thank you for the time we all have had together. We will be together again some day. Love you!

NICK CARAVASSI, MARCH 9, 2019

Jay. You were always our friend, our family, our "person". The laughs we had and memories we made together in Wildwood, Florida, Italy, San Antonio and Sanibel will have to last us until we see you again. We take comfort in knowing that in your short 68 years, you had a beautiful life and an amazing family where love was NEVER in short supply, always given and received freely. It was a beautiful thing to see and experience! Rest in peace my wonderful friend...until we meet again! Love, Carol
