Marie was a beautiful woman with such a sweet personality. We will always remember her as being such a bright light when she walked into a room regardless if it was with family or friends. It was a delight to visit with my cousin when she was able to attend our annual family reunions held in McKinney. Family was very important to her. I know how much Marie wanted to be with us all again when she recently moved back to Texas. Unfortunately, her life was unexpectedly cut short and she is now with our good Lord. May she rest in Heaven and be with her loved ones again. Love you Marie and may you smile again.
