

Frederick Isaiah Boyte

September 28, 1914 - July 30, 2005

Fred Boyte, loving husband, daddy and paw-paw passed away on July 30, 2005 in Milton, Florida. He was born September, 28, 1914 and lived most of his life in West Carroll Parish, Louisiana. Fred was a farmer and a long time member of First Baptist Church of Kilbourne where he served as a Sunday school teacher and a Deacon. He is survived by his son and daughter-in-law, Bill and Kathy Boyte of Little Rock, Arkansas; daughter and son-in-law, Carolyn and Billy Welborn of Milton, Florida; grand-daughters, Amanda and Brian Pikkula of Houston, Texas and Brittney Boyte of Little Rock, Arkansas; great-grandson, Coleman Pikkula of Houston, Texas and several nieces and nephews. His wife of 61 years, Ophelia Vaughan Boyte; his parents, Isaiah and Cora Boyte; five brothers, Earl, James, Dillard, Melvin and Mack and sister, Odie Lee Janes precede him in death. Graveside Services will be held on Wednesday, August 3, 2005 at Ridgeview West Memorial Park, Frisco, Texas at 10:30 AM. Family will meet with friends before the service. Services are under the direction of Turrentine-Jackson-Morrow Funeral Directors, 8520 Main Street, Frisco TX 75034. In lieu of flowers memorials may be made to Kilbourne Baptist Church or a charity of your choice in Fred's name.

Memorials

Carolyn, I hate to lose a dear friend. Lynn said he was like she and I are; there are more people in heaven waiting on him in heaven than there are here for him. Please send me your address, or e mail me. hodgkins@bayou.com.

TINA WELBORNE WHATLEY, AUGUST 20, 2005

Stella Sasser Mccullough would like to express her deepest sympathy to the family of Fred Boyte. She knew him and his family as a child. She went to school with him and their families shared many many activities together. They were neighbors living only a short distance from each other in West Carroll Parish. They went to the same church. She now lives in Little Rock, Ark. with her daughter. She still gets the West Carroll Gazette and as soon as she saw the obituary she told me of the friendship their families shared through the years. It saddened her to hear of this news but wishes the family comfort and strength from our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Angie Rhodes 12000 David O. Dodd Little Rock, Ark, 72210 501-455-8230
