Memorials

Eric and Teresa, We are so sorry about Geoff's passing. We have very fond memories of your family, from church, school, scouts, and just on the block.

His smile was infectious. Praying for all of your sadness in losing him so early. Praying for peace and comfort and for God's arms to be felt holding all of you.

SUSAN AND GREG GIBSON, SEPTEMBER 19, 2021

Erik, my heart aches to hear of the passing of your son. No parent should bear that weight on their shoulders alone. Please know your friends and family are here for you, even if it is just to listen.

TODD ELLIS, SEPTEMBER 17, 2021

When Geoff walked in the room the mood changed. Geoff always had a good story and just made everyone around him happy. I will miss his infectious smile and sense of humor. Rest peacefully.

DARLENE SMITH, SEPTEMBER 16, 2021

Eric and Teresa, We were so sad to hear of Geoff's passing. We have the most wonderful memories of Geoff and Alex playing together as children. Every day was a better day if Geoff came over to play. Geoff and the rest of your family are forever etched in our memories and in our hearts. We have stopped to pray for you several times already and will continue to do so over the coming days and weeks. Our prayer is for peace, comfort, and for God to draw you closer to each other and closer to him as you navigate your grief journey. Let yourself grieve. Let yourself remember. Let yourself celebrate the time you had with Geoff. Love,
