MELINDA STRICKLAND, AUGUST 7, 2015

Dear Brenda, Johnny and family, Seems like only yesterday, we were kids at Washington School, how time flies. We have good memories of Harold during SHS years and the many '54 reunions. He was always kind and thoughtful, and had that always sweet smile. Brenda, thank you for keeping in touch with me through all these months. May time help to heal the pain of your loss and only the good memories be with you forever. God Bless.

JOAN AND BOB BLAKEY PERRY, AUGUST 7, 2015

I will always remember him as a gentle man with not much to say but always a smile and jingling the coins in his pocket. I remember the day he walked down the aisle even though I was only three....Huggs and kisses Brenda...Love Deby

DEBY MURPHY PULLINS, AUGUST 7, 2015

Deepest Sympathy to Brenda, Joel, Justin, Ryan, & families.

CATHY FEAGIN, AUGUST 7, 2015

He will be missed and I was blessed to get to know you and your great family. Joel is still a great friend and my best. I have known the Andersons since the 80's - attending Princeton High School and working with Joel at the Moseley's. My prayers for the family.

PHILLIP DAVENPORT, AUGUST 7, 2015

Brenda & Family So sad to hear of Harold's passing. We know that he was welcomed home by his loved ones and that he is rejoicing in Heaven.
