Uncle Harry was a bright spot in our lives for most of my life. He married my Aunt Polly, who had lived with us for awhile in Dallas just before they wed. I was not yet in first grade, so my memories of Harry go way back. Most of all, I remember that he approached everything with that incredible smile and a sense of curiosity and wonder. We did not always live near Polly and Harry, but from the time I cried because he was taking my Aunt Polly to South America, to their first retirement in McAllen, to the holidays we spent with him...
in Corpus Christi, to his being best man in my brother’s wedding in place of our late father, to the more recent visits in McKinney, having known and spent time with Uncle Harry will always bring back special memories of good times in my life. He was special to us in so many ways and will be greatly missed and lovingly remembered. We mourn with you, Polly. You are in our thoughts and prayers.
