Memorials

Dear Family, grief can be so hard at times, but our cherished memories help us to cope. Hold tight to those memories. Lean on each other for support. And may you find comfort in God's promise at John 5:28-29.

EVELYN P., MARCH 8, 2019

I'm sorry for your loss. May the God of all comfort be with you during this difficult time.

TARA, MARCH 8, 2019

I loved working with Isadore and would always look forward to him coming in. He always had great stories to tell and we had much in common. He was always very kind to everyone and filled the room with positive energy.

NOAH CERDA, MARCH 6, 2019

Oh LoLo I just can't believe that you are gone, I saw you a few months ago at Mcdonald's and were talking about us getting old. You seemed to be in good spirits and we laughed at our wrinkling skin and our hurting bones. Kristie and the rest of the family, I am so sorry for your loss, may God give you all the peace that surpasses understanding, and may he RIP forever. My heart is just broken, I've known him since our school days in junior high. We just never know when it's our time to leave this earth, God must of needed him. Again I'm so very sorry. Irma Totin
