Loretta, I am so sad to hear of Jerry's death. Jerry always had the biggest smile with the kindest eyes. I'll also never forget Birdie riding in the back of the pick up! I feel honored to have known him.

Over many years Jerry and I did business from the Feed store to buying hay from the feild to County Health Inspector. I always enjoyed talking with him. Jerry pulled my Chevy truck from the mud with his Ford & and went on for hours it seemed about Fords. I helped him move cows and ran them into the wrong pasture. Jerry handled that well. Jerry was always fair, honest and a man I respected. I hope the Lord brings comfort to you during this time. Raymond D. Kluger
