To know Jimmy Anderson is to know about a guy who lived the American Dream, Texas native who gave it all for his family. A quiet steadfast man who was always making people smile. I loved talking to this man, he had a quiet reserved way about himself. He would say things that made me laugh and say things that would make you feel good about your friendship one had with this man. God Bless you Jimmy, we will miss you greatly but will see you someday again when we meet the Lord.
