Memorials

It seems like it was only yesterday. Talking with you about the Lord at my kitchen counter. You were a gift to us the body of Christ. You protected and you gathered, just like a shepherd would. We can all agree that your joy and smile was contagious. You are gone too soon, Danny. But we have faith that God will be glorified through all of this, and I am expecting with great joy that MANY young men and women will surrender their life to Jesus. I am expecting a great wave of healing to come which is what you would want to see happen. Your request to me has been granted and God willing it continues for many many years to come. You wanted your mom and I to become friends and that we became and more. A friend that is a sister for the rest of my life. Danny, the love you gave to your family, and your friends will be with us forever, as you live forever in eternity, because love never dies. I will love you always Danny!

Where do I even begin. God took you sooner than any of us planned, yet there isn't enough time to put into words who you were as a person. You touched so many lives with your inspiring words and gracious heart. You always spoke the truth. Always putting others before yourself. And always stayed true yourself. I admired that the most about you. We had so many laughs, so many deep conversations. You were always there for me when I needed you the most. We had our rough patches but we always chose to keep our friendship strong. I would give anything to hear your laugh again. You will never be forgotten. And now you have a daughter on the way! She would have had an amazing father. It's such a bitter sweet situation. But I know she's going to come out just like her dad. Strong! I love you Danny!
