To all the Bell family - I remember your dad with great fondness. He was a tremendous presence growing up. I especially remember him falling asleep while driving Kathy and me to the mall!! That will always be a funny memory to me. May God bless and keep you in this hard time. Much Love, Cheryl

CHERYL LYNN WILLIAMS, JANUARY 21, 2011

Ken was a special person and he had a kind, loving heart. Thinking back to our younger years we had the best time ever...sometimes just having dinner together, some times at Steak & Ale in Richardson...one time talking to Ken & Le when they were in Tea-ran I-ran...(texas spelling)...Ken get the place ready for us and we will see you again one day...love you, and love Le, Patsy

THOMAS CUNNINGHAM, JANUARY 20, 2011

May all the Bell family feel the presence of the Lord during this painful loss of their dear loved one. The passing of a loved one is a painful, though temporary, separation until all Believers will be reunited again. Thank the Lord for the fond memories, and keep those close to your heart. God Bless and sustain you all.

GEORGE DAVID PAYNE, JANUARY 20, 2011

I am truly sorry for your loss. I pray the sure hope found in the bible will bring comfort to your hearts. "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear the voice of Christ and come out." (John 5:28,29 Acts 24:15) Yes, you will see your loved ones again because Christ will journey there to awaken them from sleep. (John 11:1,11-14,43,44) And the life to be enjoyed when this takes place is almost to wonderful to contemplate. (Revelation 21:3,4 Psalms 37:11,29 Micah 4:4) etc.. tymack79@aim.com
