Memorials

Oh Krista, my first love (junior high), I know you have touched the hearts of many throughout the years. Your smile did not change. I am so sorry for the huge loss to so many 'left behind'. Rest in true peace.

TIM MINION, MAY 18, 2017

I'll always remember the way Krista opened my eyes to different mediums of art. I had never met a true artist until I met her in 1989. I always loved hanging out at Krista & Deb's with Natalie. Deb, Natalie and Jacob my deepest condolences are with you all.

CAROLYN PARHAM, JANUARY 8, 2017

Krista was one of the beautiful people in life. She radiated Jesus at all times and I loved to glean from her wisdom. Although we didn't see each other often now, she was a heart sister. I have been praying for the entire family but especially for Deb and Jacob. May the Lord comfort you each as only He can. Love to you each, Terri Threadgill

TERRI THREADGILL, JANUARY 6, 2017

I grew up with Krista in Illinois. We reconnected on Facebook several years ago and "talked" a lot online. I always loved her imaginative spirit! I will miss the relationship we had online as I now live in Indiana, but we are sisters In Christ and I know I will see her again someday. My deepest condolences to all of her friends and family far and wide. You are now where there are no more tears and I am glad for you. You will be missed, my friend.

LAURIE HANDEL MILLER, DECEMBER 27, 2016

We grew up together in a small community in Illinois. Krista was a beautiful soul and will be greatly missed by all who knew her. My condolences to her family..

CINDY RAILEY, DECEMBER 6, 2016

I'm so sorry for your loss. I hope you can find comfort in God's Word, Psalm 34:18 is one of my favorites. Again, my sincerest condolences.

NICOLE STEWART, NOVEMBER 29, 2016

Krista and I grew up together beginning in kindergarten. Growing up in the same neighborhood, Krista, Gail and I were close buds. She was a dear friend. We reconnected several years ago and the three of us shared some fun times when I came to visit. Krista was one-of-a-kind, her ideas and beliefs were interesting, genuine and strongly held. I will always love her and treasure the many memories of my dear friend Krista. My sincere condolences to Deb and the whole family. I know you will miss her always. Cathy Engaldo Spencer
