Memorials

Sweet love of mine. Its been five years since I heard your voice or saw your beautiful smile. I cant believe its been so long. We still speak of you all the time and tell stories of things you did and things you said . so many people have a story to tell of a time you were around them or the first time they met you. You left every person you met with good memories of you. You were looked up to and adored by all who knew you. I was so lucky to be your mom even though it was for just a short time. You are an angel now. I know youre at peace and watching over us. You will never leave my heart and I will never stop keeping your memory alive. I love you and I miss you more and more as time passes. You are with me forever and I will carry you safe in my heart until we meet again. I love you sweet baby. RIP. Mom

MOM, OCTOBER 27, 2020

I made my first movie... you're in it. I was writing a script while I'm here filming in Jerusalem and I was thinking about you. I remember after your death I felt like God spoke to me through you in Spirit... You are a Kristyn so it was nice to see Christ work through you. I love you and Thank You so much. It's nice to see you in Spirit. I started work on a script called " Bell " in your memory. It has some pretty extreme parts, but what can I say. You had the most amazing life and I want to immortalize it. Thank you so much for being so amazing and a Great Sister and Best Friend. I will Always Love You! KC

My sweet angel, i miss you so. I know it is probably awkward to you that I haven't wrote anything until now but believe me it isn't because i havent thought of you everyday and had so many things I've want to say. It's been hard for me. Very hard. But i survived. I never wouldve imagined that I could still be alive with you gone. God has something planned for me. I dont know exactly what or why he took you back home with him just yet but everyday I come a step closer to the understanding of it all. You were his child. I was just fortunate enough to get to call you my own though even for just a short time. I wouldn't trade it for anything in this world. I want you to know that your memory livces within my heart and that can never change. I love you so much. I know that you had a special welcome for nanny and papa. I bet it was nice to be presnt when papa and nanny were reunited. What happiness and joy must have filled the air. I hope yall are having a great time. Just know that your spirit lives strong in our hearts you are missed and loved more than words can say. I will be there to meet you again ..I hope you're dancing in the sky. Loving you has always been easy. You are my superstar. Mama

God had a place where he needed to place an angel in his personal garden. I don't think He realized what a blank space would be left in our heart's gardens without her. Wait for us sweetheart and we will all be together again! You are forever in our hearts and prayers! Love Uncle Kenny, Aunt Moe, and cousins Cody and Jesse McCollom

she was the apple of my eye. We will miss her smile. When she was young we went on camping trips and rode our bikes in the park, took her to the beaches to swim. She always made friends so easily. We would ride our four wheeler all over the hills and creek bottom. I will remember these good times till I am gone. Love you my precious granddaughter
