WAYNE AND SHERRILL, JANUARY 10, 2018

I had the honor to serve as a caregiver for Leonard & Lena before her passing. He aptly named me fat nurse which is a nickname I will always cherish. Leonard was a loving husband, father & grandfather. He loved his family very very much. He told interesting stories about his time in WWII and was proud of his service. He cared about young kids getting to play sports and had a true passion for coaching them to success. Leonard was a joker in the deck of life and will be missed by us one and all.
