Memorials

Hi Leslie! How's heaven? I know you're up there hugging your loved ones who went before and you no longer have a human body that is wearing down your lovely spirit! We had some great fellowship times in high school and junior college. Your laughter, your joyful nature and your tender heart always lifted everyone up. I am sorry your loved ones still on Earth have lost you so soon.

Please keep sending them heavenly kisses to let them know you're watching over them. Until we meet up again, keep those beautiful green eyes shining with a wee bit of mischief as the angels do need a spirited character to make them laugh. Much love my friend! Love, Kim
