SCOTT, CAROL AND ZACH WADE, JANUARY 11, 2021

I will always love you and miss you so much already. I wish I could I have done more and been with you at the end. I know these last few years have been tough with failing health, but you were always so strong, always there for me. The last few days I have wanted to call you to hear your reassuring voice and visit you. I know you are in a better place with dad, grandma, Connie and your siblings. Thanks for being such a wonderful mom and grandma. We were very lucky to have someone who loved us as much as you did. Love Steve
