Memorials

Dear Patty, I was thinking about Mel and you today and 'googled' his name. I never thought it would be an obituary. My late husband, Ron, worked for Mel in Texas and again in South Bend, IN (AM General). I remember coming to your home in Granger for a 'meet and greet' type of evening and it was so cold with lots of snow on the ground. Before Ron returned from Riyadh in 2004, I reached out to Mel in an effort to possibly find employment. He was very kind to me. I am so sorry for your loss. His face is exactly as I remember. Bless you and the children.

MILLY G. LANDERS, AUGUST 5, 2017

Patty and family, We are in Indiana for the summer and were so sorry to read about Mel's passing. We fondly remember living next door to you when you first moved to Texas and Mel worked in Greenville. Sympathy and prayers at this difficult time.
