*Becky, you know how much I love you...you are family. And nobody "pestered" me, like Mikel. And I loved being on the receiving end of it. You were blessed to have so many years together, starting at a young age. I know how hard he worked, always, and what a wonderful husband he was to you. I also know he loved his boys, and was a wonderful Dad. Also, he was an adoring and adored Grandfather. You (and he) hit the jackpot, when you found each other. I am so sorry for the loss your famiy is feeling. I am here for you, always. I love you!
Love, Carol*

I just wanted to send my condolences to you and your family. I worked with Mike at the East Home Depot for four years before I transfered stores. He was the one of the most helpful and always willing to lend a hand and giving that extra mile for a customer. What I remember most is that he made the funnest jokes. He was a very sweet man.
