Memorials

My late brother, Fred Hurt, and I grew up at the same time with Morgan in Delta County. I am saddened to learn of Morgan's passing. My sincere condolences to his family. May God give you peace.

DAVID C. HURT, MAY 19, 2015

JO ANNE: SORRY TO HEAR ABOUT MORGAN. HE WAS SUCH A GREAT GUY. MY THOUGHTS & PRAYERS ARE WITH YOU AND YOUR FAMILY.

HELEN M LAWSON, MAY 14, 2015

JoAnn, Barry, Donna and granddaughters may you all find peace in knowing you had such a wonderful husband, father and grandfather who loved his family very much. May God give you all comfort during this difficult time.

MIKE AND CAROL JONES, MAY 13, 2015

Little did we know that morning that GOD would call you home. Death leaves a heartache no one can heal; but in life we love you dearly. You left us peaceful memories and while we are mourning our friend one day we all will be together again. Your old friend and school mate.

E C AND GLORIA EVANS, MAY 13, 2015

Breaks my heart to hear this. Was such a great man. You are in my thoughts and prayers. Love to the family. Terry (Alberta Corder is my grandmother and Leonese was my mom).

TERRY BURGAMY, MAY 12, 2015

Deepest Sympathy to Jo Ann, Barry, Cally, & Cassy. I am fortunate that my life & Morgans life passed along Life's Journey.

CATHY FEAGIN, MAY 12, 2015

I loved visiting with Morgan and the other wise men who meet at the Farmersville Dairy Queen. It was fun to solve the world's problems over coffee. Morgan always made it a point to ask about the family and how everyone was doing. He truly cared. This is so sad to hear. We were so lucky to have him as a friend.
