Memorials

Joel and family: I am sorry for your loss. I know how hard it is to lose a loved one and my prayers are with you. Pat was a good friend and I'm glad to have known her. God bless you and yours. Sincerely, Wilma Ballard and Family

WILMA BALLARD, DECEMBER 16, 2010

I offer the family my heartfelt sympathy. Know that God's Word can be profoundly comforting. Humbly accept his message of truth and you will find that your feelings of overwhelming sadness will gradually be displaced by the comfort and peace that only God can provide. (Psalm 94:19; John 5:28,29)

Joel, I am very sorry to hear about you're mom. One week ago Thursday my mom also passed away. I know exactly how you are feeling right now. It sure is hard to lose a mom. I have some great memories of us hanging out in the lunch room with our moms. You and your family will be in my prayers. Tim Neathery
