Memorials

I'm so sorry to hear about Paula. I just flew with her a couple of weeks before she passed away. Flight attendants don't always remember names or even see ones again that we have flown with. But Paula touched my heart! I could tell she was going thru too much stress and I told her that I was worried about her and the things she was telling me. Today in recurrent training is when I found out. Flight attendants tell each other things when we fly together sometimes that we have to share. Paula wanted to be happy and my heart went out to her. As we ended our three day trip she gave me a hug and I didn't forget her. I just wondered what ever happened to her and so sad to hear this about her. She loved her job and just wanted to be loved! It's hard for me to process and I'm so sorry for your loss. We now have the hope of resurrection as was taught in the Bible. My deepest regards for the family. Sincerely , Beverly Bettes
