Rassie Edward Barker went home to his heavenly father on January 17, 2019 in McKinney, Texas. He was born November 18, 1924 in Farmersville, Texas to Arlie and Maggie VanBever's Barker. He married Daisy Riddle in 1948 in Greenville, Texas. He was a member of the First Baptist Church of Farmersville, Texas.

Mr. Barker was the Past Master of the Farmersville I.O. O. F. Lodge, Farmersville Ex Students Association, Farmersville High School Hall of Fame Induction 2018, and Farmersville Masonic Lodge. He also served in the U. S. Army during World War II.

He is survived by daughter, Trena Stunkel of Plano, Texas and son, Ronnie Barker and wife Mary of Plano, Texas; grandchildren; Jacqueline Henderson and Trent Boydston; six great-grandchildren.

A Memorial Service will be at 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, January 26, 2019 at the First Baptist Church of Farmersville, Texas, with Dr. Bart Barber officiating.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to, Ronald McDonald House or The First Baptist Church of Farmersville, Texas.

Memorials

My heart goes out to his loved ones. I frequently thought about the Barkers who lived in Texas. I know you are in heaven with my father. Hugs.

CYNTHIA BARKER, JULY 15, 2019

R.I.P. Rassie. Our deepest sympathy to the Barker family.

MARK & LENORA POER, JANUARY 26, 2019

Ronnie and Trena, we are so sorry to hear of Rassie passing. My Dad and I enjoyed working for your Family. Rassie was a good and fair man. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of your families.

TIM & SUE WARDEN, JANUARY 21, 2019

Rassie was a true friend, great neighbor and man of character. It was an honor to know him. My deepest sympathy to his loved ones.

JENNY COX, JANUARY 20, 2019

Our heartfelt sympathy and condolences are with Rassie's family, close friends, neighbors, classmates, FBC members, I.O.O.F. members, FHS Ex-students Association Members, Farmersville Main Street Events and Audie Murphy Day members, former military friends, and those other groups that he supported, held a position, and shared his time and life with. We will miss his presence, greeting, kindness, positive light, handshake, smile, laughter, genuine friendship, and sharing of God's love with each of us. His encouraging words lifted us and were delivered with sincerity, genuine caring concern, and from a Christian heart that gave all he had to each friendship, endeavor, and event in his life. Luckily, he lives in our memories, our hearts, and eternally in our Father's house. God bless each of you and keep Rassie in your care. With our love and In sympathy, The Henson Family, Gill, Louise, & Dorothy, Rockwall, TX

GILL HENSON AND FAMILY, JANUARY 19, 2019

R.I.P. Rassie Barker. Deepest Sympathy to the Barker Family. Trena & Ronnie, anything I can do let me know. Rassie will be missed here in this town. He was a very dear guy in my heart.
