Larry and Sheree, your father was a giver. He gave our family time, attention, guidance and love for more than sixty years. I know he treated other people that way too, but when he was with us for family milestones, he gave us his full attention as if he had no other demands on his time. Our lives are richer for having known him and your mother.

To Brother Larry Allgood I remember when your dad became the pastor in Plano; the church was small with very few people; but over the years the Lord blessed your dad and mom with great success. The buildings stand today as an edifice to their ministry.. "What an amazing person and what a remarkable life of Brother Allgood. I feel so blessed that I got to know him over many years." Your voice brought me great comfort at my Daddys Funeral and I have never forgotten that, even 24 years later. You were a sweet man with a good heart and a gentle soul. You will never be forgotten and will always be missed. Enjoy Heaven... Rest in Peace Bro. Allgood

Sorry to hear of your loss. My Aunt Bebe Donley, always talked very fondly of Brother Allgood and his wife, they were neighbors and she lived not far from the church. Seems like he lived a long and beautiful life. May he rest in paradise.

BILL & PAULETTE MITCHELL, NOVEMBER 11, 2016

My prayers are with you all. He is free, he is healthy, he is happy, he is with his loving wife, he is in the presence of Jehovah! Those who remain weep for our loss but his passing is his gain. He fought a good fight, kept the faith and he has finished the course. I know you are sad but you must also be very proud to have been his family and he loved you all dearly.

MARY JONES, NOVEMBER 11, 2016

But He is always stopped and talked to me. He was so busy, so many things to do for the kingdom of God but he always stopped and talked to me. I watched him and my dad talk so many times, church issues, school issues, but he always stopped and talked to me. He could lead the service, preach the word, work the alters but he always stopped and talked to me. He would be at summer camp packing the bus, loading up the kids and teenagers, getting the final count but he always stopped and talked to me. He visited Convocation at the college I attended, surrounded by headline speakers, prominent preachers, people of importance but he always stopped and talked to me. The prodigal son, the wayward child and considered unclean by many but he always stopped and talked to me..... Thank you Bro Allgood for always stopping and talking to me... Tim

What a man of such strong faith and integrity. So many people around Plano and Collin County knew and respected this fine man and his fine family. Even those who might not have agreed with his beliefs respected and honored him. His strong convictions were evident in his every day life in church or at a hardware store. It was a honor to know him and be raised with his family. God speed Pastor Allgood !

Brother Allgood will be missed by all who knew him. His ministry touched many lives in a positive way. I always enjoyed every minute he and I spent together. Though most of our time was brief, he always encouraged me . He had a wonderful zeal for his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I'll never forget as a young man playing trumpet with his son Larry at some of the C.A. Rallies in the mid 70's. God Bless all the family and thanks for sharing your Dad with all of us.
