Memorials

I am a first cousin to Brenda Barnett Coburn. My mother was Zona Barnett Pfordrescher, sister to Coy Barnett. I have been trying to locate Brenda's children on Ancestry for some time and just found that Scott had died. He and

Kelly came to my wedding with Brenda in El Campo Texas in 1965 when I married my late first husband, Richard Ott, Jr. I'm sorry to have lost contact with my Barnett relatives since our parents have passed as also so many of us.

JUDY PFARDRESCHER LUKE, APRIL 24, 2019

So very saddened and in disbelief about Scott's passing, which I am just learning of a year later. I worked with Scott, and he was always willing to help others. Friendly, smart, talented, and would make you laugh when you least expected it. He was a bright light extinguished way too early. My thoughts and prayers are with Scott's loving family and friends.

MADLYN, MARCH 3, 2019

I am Scott's cousin from Narrows, Virginia, where his grandfather was raised. Our hearts break. We send our love and prayers to his wife, children, dad and mom, and sister. He left this world loved, and that is a win for anyone. AJ

ANNA JOHNSON, MARCH 22, 2018

Hap and I were so sorry to hear about Scott. His family and friends are in our thoughts at this sad time.

MILLIE & HAP POLK, MARCH 11, 2018

Our family was so saddened hear of Scott's passing. Our thoughts are with his family and loved ones. Sending love and prayers.
