Memorials

Ron was my brother's father-in-law. I always considered him to be my Uncle-in-law. EVERYONE loved him. I love the fact that he had been EVERYWHERE. From a little nothing town in Northern California to some small logging road in Arkansas. If you mentioned it, he had been there. He could describe it and tell a story about it too. It never ceased to amaze me. When I get to heaven I will know who to go to for directions. I will miss playing

Harts and watching motocross. I am very sad to see him go. I am thankful to haven known him. He leaves behind 3 of the greatest daughters and an amazing wife. He and Rich always called each other "Bud" and they clearly were buds. As much best friends as father and son. They all loved him more than I could possibly describe.
