To see this about Ron, is so sad. We would see Ron in his white Ford pickup drive down the alley, coming and going occasionally if we were outdoors. Ron always had a Big Wave & Smile. (we're the neighbors in the corner) Would see the Little Dog out w/Ron in front occasionally. Linda, please take care if yourself-We're down the road if you need anything.. Rest in Heaven Ron.

BECKY & PAUL ELKINS, FEBRUARY 8, 2022

Sending love, strength and prayers during this most difficult time.

LISA RICE, FEBRUARY 8, 2022

You could always count on Ron to be a positive, practical, helpful, kind man who had a great sense of humor too. His complete devotion to his wife Linda, their countless daschunds through the years (currently Lucy Lu) and also to Linda's mother, Bette Sirmans, was extraordinary. The world lost one of the rare kinda "good guys" with Ron's passing. I feel lucky to have known him.

LISA RICE, FEBRUARY 8, 2022

Linda, I am so sorry to hear about the passing of your husband. I know this is a very difficult time for you and I pray that you will find some comfort in knowing that he is at least not suffering anymore. My thoughts and prayers are with you always. Love,

JOANN GRAESSEL, FEBRUARY 8, 2022

Ron was my son-in-law & my best friend. He always called me Mom, always wanting to help me any way he could. I couldn't have chosen a better person for my daughter. Love you always, Mom "Billy, Penny & Bailey"

My favorite memory with Uncle Ron- Disney World June 1986

MELISSA HENNESSY, FEBRUARY 8, 2022

Caring, kind, generous, heartfelt are just a few of the qualities that come to mind when I think about my Uncle Ron. He may have been soft spoken, most of the time, but he sure knew how to make others laugh with his witty humor. In his free time if he wasn't outside tinkering in the yard he was spending time with my Aunt Linda and their four legged "kid." The love they shared for so many years is one that fairytales are made of. A true gentleman always making sure every lady around was taken care of first. He definitely left this world with an imprint that makes it a better place. For all these reasons and so many more I'm proud to be his niece. I LOVE YOU UNCLE RON.

Linda Picturing Ron and Mark with their Corona Beers, Buffett songs in the breeze, and the sunlight glistening on the water. Just like before... Love you Patty

PATTY ROWELL, FEBRUARY 8, 2022

Linda,~ Ron was the most amazing Brother-in-law a sister could ever have. Our family was blessed to have Ron in our lives. He will be truly missed by all of us. Love, Charlene

CHARLENE A. DIDDEN, FEBRUARY 8, 2022

Linda, I am so very sorry. There are no words. I've always heard wonderful things about Ron, he was one special man! Look up at the sky at night and find the brightest star, that will be Ron looking over you. He might even give you a wink! Always, Heidi Donovan
