Memorials

I have just discovered thru Ancestry.com research that Ron Andrews was my second cousin 1x removed. We are the same age. I am sorry I was 2 months too late in finding this connection, I would have reached out. Condolences to his family and loved ones.

DOUG PHELPS, APRIL 27, 2020

I never met Ronnie but he is my cousin from his Alabama roots. I'm so sorry for your loss. I love his sister Pam and she has been so worried about her brother. Continued prayers of comfort.

LINDA LUSTER STRICKLAND, FEBRUARY 15, 2020

We are so sorry to hear of your loss. I (Carolyn) truly enjoyed getting to know your parents during your residency graduation banquet last year, Cody. May you continue to have a wonderful legacy to your dad in the way you treat your patients; he seemed so proud of you. My husband and I are thinking of you all and sending love and respect.

CAROLYN LONG & MICHAEL HAGAN, FEBRUARY 13, 2020

We are so sorry to hear of the loss of your father and husband. I (Carolyn) truly enjoyed getting to know Mr and Mrs Andrews at Cody's residency graduation banquet last year. My husband and I are thinking of you all, and sending warm wishes for comfort during this time. The way you treat your patients is a wonderful legacy to your father, Cody. Sending love and respect during this difficult time.

CAROLYN LONG & MICHAEL HAGAN, FEBRUARY 13, 2020

Chrystal I am so sorry for your loss. You and Ron raised a fine son.

JANET GADD, FEBRUARY 13, 2020

I knew Ron from Larry's Restaurant in The Colony, he was one of the regulars. Ron and I became friends there and drank a lot of coffee together over the years. I really enjoyed his friendship and will miss him greatly. I know now that he is in Heaven enjoying the best coffee. Blessings and peace on you all.

SHERMAN GARDNER, FEBRUARY 13, 2020

Sending sincere condolences.

PAM YORK WARRINGTON , FEBRUARY 12, 2020

Prayers for the family of my cousin Ronnie. He was loved & will be missed.
