Memorials

I just find it hard to believe that Sally is now with the Lord. You have had some real struggles with illness and have been in our prayers but we did not know that Sally as ill. May the Lord give you and the family His peace during this time.

KURT & GINNY BRIETZKE, JULY 5, 2008

Bob, You have our heartfelt sympathy upon the "Home Going" of Sally. We were certainly suprised when we received the news, and we will keep you in our thoughts and prayers. We were just remembering our pinocle games, and other times we were together - many, many years ago. Love in Him, Aaron & Sandi

AARON & SANDRA ROGERS, JULY 3, 2008

I remember Sally when we were teenagers. We were together in sunday school at Ebenezer. Marilyn Skubick was the teacher. At the reunion Sally said, you probably don't remember me. I always admired her and certainly could not forget her. I'm sad to know that she has left but, rejoice in knowing we shall meet again, in the Master's presence. I will pray that God's love will continue to uphold you. God is our help and strength in times like this.

NANCY JEAN BOZA' (BARNUM), JULY 3, 2008

Dear Bob and family, May you know God's wonderful peace as Sally is now free of pain and rejoicing with her Savior. Her love and devotion to all of her family, friends and patients is finished and now she is ready to worship at the Throne of God. We have such an awesome God who loves you as no one else can. God Bless Sincerely, Diane Knopf Sally was always a very courageous and loving person. Her pain is over now and she is in Heaven looking down on all of those who love her and keeping them safe and knowing that they are loved. While you will miss her terribly, you will one day see her again. Our deepest sympathies and condolences are with you. You are all in our thoughts and prayers at this time.

JIM AND LINDA JEFFERSON, JULY 2, 2008

My sincere sympathy to all of your family. What a shining example Sally was! I knew Sally through our Harmony Sunday school class and she showed me how strong her faith was when she went through the loss of Julie. Sally had such a comforting demeanor toward others. She will truly be missed! We are sad about our earthly loss of Sally, but we know Sally is rejoicing with our Lord and with Julie. Paul and I are out of state and will not be able to attend Sally’s services, but want you to know our thoughts and prayers are with you. Darlene Munden and Paul Baughman
