O'Hare, Sean Patrick a native of Mobile, Alabama, passed away in Dallas, Texas on August 29, 2014 after a lengthy illness. Sean was born February 22, 1962 in Montgomery, Alabama to Percy Raymond and Ann (Gunthorpe) Hare. He attended Davidson and Murphy High Schools in Mobile. Sean received a Bachelor's of Science degree in Biology from Springhill College and did graduate work and research in Marine Biology at the University of South Alabama, which included Dolphin necropsies and field studies of a Mobile River Delta turtle species. He passionately loved sailing, astronomy and biodiversity. Sean traveled to Ireland to appreciate his Irish namesakes and also spent several years in Germany. He was an award winning Thespian and an avid dabbler in all things scientific.

He is survived by sisters, Mary Ann Johnston and husband Bob, Amy (Suzie) Nicholls and husband Ken; brother, Raymond C. Hare; along with 9 nieces and nephews.

Sean is preceded in death by his father, Major Percy R. Hare; mother, Ann Gunthorpe Hare.

The family gratefully acknowledges the love and care given to Sean by members of the "Monday Night Supper Club" in Dallas. Sean was an advocate of LGBT causes. Donations in Sean's honor may be made to: The Nature Conservancy at Nature.org or The Starbucks Foundation.

Memorials
Family Owned Since 1945

Turrentine-Jackson-Morrow is the premier provider of funeral services in North Texas, with seven convenient locations and three beautiful memorial parks. We are a locally owned family business that has served North Texas for over 70 years. Families who visit us receive the highest quality of professionalism and service, with compassion and care that are unsurpassed.

Copyright 2015 (972) 562-2601