Mr. & Mrs. Barnett...I'm not sure if you remember me or not, but Shannon lived with me and Ashland, MA for a few years back in, maybe, 1997/1998. I did meet you both once when you were up from Texas. I just want you both to know, that Shannon was truly loved by soooo many people. I didn't even know she passed until last week. It shocked me, and I miss her horribly. I am so sorry I was not able to attend her memorial service. If I knew sooner, I would have been on the next flight. I saw a prayer for Shannon every night and my only consolation is knowing that she is with, who she calls "the love of her life"...Willie! Her beloved dog that passed a while back. She is in a better place now; I know that sounds so cliché' but it's true. May she truly rest in peace and I will pray for your family as well through this upcoming holiday season. Be strong; I know that's what Shannon would want you to do ;-) You are in my prayers... Colleen

God, our Father, You gave us life, Your life, and You enable us to give life to others. Watch over our children, Your children. Protect them from the dangers of this day and beyond. Help them to know always that we love them, You love them. God, our Father, give us strength this day. Help us to love with Your love. Help us be an example for our children, to listen to them and to give them our time and energy -- in the competing chaos of life. Help us to know when our children need us, even when they don't say a word. Help us to answer with patience, wisdom and compassion. God, our Father, remind us that You are always with us, holding us and our children gently in the palm of Your hand, cradling us in Your love and mercy. Amen. Jerry and Kay, You and Shannon are in my prayers, Billy Vita
