

Sharon Wright Alexander

May 2, 1945 - July 30, 2012

Sharon Wright Alexander, age 67, of McKinney, Texas, passed away July 30, 2012, in McKinney. Sharon was born May 2, 1945, in San Antonio, Texas, to James Gillenwaters and Hertha Ella (Schreiber) Wright. She graduated from Keystone High School in 1963 and attended Southwest Texas State University. Sharon was a member of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas – Alamo Heroes. She was also a member of Lighthouse Christian Fellowship in Prosper and Bethesda Christian Church in San Antonio.

She is survived by her sons, Matthew Alexander and wife, Stacy of McKinney, Texas, Nathaniel Alexander and wife, Deborah of Santa Fe, Texas; grandchildren, Peyton, Keegan, and Corbin Alexander, all of McKinney, Texas and Jordyn, Dylan, Brayden, and Landyn Alexander, all of Santa Fe, Texas; friends, Billy Alexander, Margaret Huth, Lana Power, Carolyn Hmcir, and Doris Boyle, all of San Antonio, Texas, and Joseph Mlinar of Wisconsin; and a host of other loving family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents and grandparents, Theodore and Ann Schreiber and William Crow and Julia Gober Wright.

Memorial celebrations will be held at The Grand Texan in McKinney on August 3, 2012, at 4:30 p.m. and at Bethesda in San Antonio on August 11, 2012, at 6:00 p.m.

Memorials

Just learned of Sharon's passing. I met her once when we became aware of our family connection. Her father was a cousin to my grandfather. She and I shared a lot of family history and I enjoyed getting to know her and learn about her side of the family and or kinship. I will miss corresponding with her. She was a nice lady and cousin. Just wish that I had gotten to know her better.

WILLIAM FRED WRIGHT, OCTOBER 4, 2012

Dear Matthew and Nathaniel, I send you my deepest sympathy. Your mother and I never met, although we talked on the phone, and sent family history to each other. James G. Wright and my grandfather, W.W. Wright were brothers.

PATSY P. LIGHT, AUGUST 10, 2012

Matthew and Nathaniel, We are so sorry to hear of your loss of your Mom. All of us have wonderful memories of the get togethers the family had and never did I see Sharon without a smile on her face.

BILLIE ANN LOEP, AUGUST 8, 2012

Matt, I worked with you at Thousand Oaks PO and worked also with your Mom, she was a very delightful individual. My condolences to your family. May Sharon rest in peace and God needs good people in Heaven and so Ms. Sharon is there now happy and in a much better place.

EDNA BACANI(HARTGRAVES), AUGUST 6, 2012

Matthew, Stacy, Nathaniel and Deborah, my love and sympathy go out to you at this time. Be sure to always let those kids of yours know what a great person your mom was. See you in San Antonio next week. Love you much.

JONI HARTNESS, AUGUST 3, 2012

Matthew, Stacey, Nathaniel, Deborah, Billy and families. Want you to know we are thinking of you today. Love you all. See you in S.A. next weekend.

LILLIAN BEAVER PFEFFERKORN, AUGUST 3, 2012

I send my heartfelt condolences to Matthew and Stacy Alexander, Nathaniel and Deborah Alexander and their wonderful children whom she deeply loved and was so proud of. I extend my sympathy to Bill Alexander as well. Sharon's loving ways and servant's heart will be forever remembered and treasured. May all of you take comfort in knowing she now rests peacefully, happily, and deservedly in the arms of her Lord and Savior. She is truly the daughter of The King of Kings Our Lord Jesus Christ. I love you Sharon and am so thankful for your devoted friendship

MARGIE HUTH, AUGUST 3, 2012

Nathaniel & Matthew & families, my sincerest condolences to your entire family. May your memories of your Mom bring you comfort in the days and years ahead.
