Steve, very sorry for your loss.

PAUL WILSON, DECEMBER 30, 2017

I am so sorry to hear about Sherrill. I worked with her at the chiropractic office. I loved her!! We had stayed in contact with each other from time to time to catch up on what was going in our lives and about the girls and grandbabies. My heart hurts for your family. Know that you all are in my prayers and she will be so very missed. I wish I could be there but am unable to get out of obligations already set into place. Love, Linda

LINDA LEWIS SMITH , DECEMBER 26, 2017

Dear Steve, Ashley and Emily and to your husbands and children, How sorry we are for the loss of your dear wife and mother. Sherrill was such a joy to know, having worked with her for many years. She was diligent, thorough and above reproach. She loved her dogs and her family. Certainly not in that order. She especially loved her grandkids and was always quick to show the latest pictures. Our prayer for you is that the Lord will comfort you and help you enjoy the memories of her life, how she gave and how she loved you all. Praying God's comfort and grace to you all. Sincerely, Brad and Julie McKechnie
