Memorials

Even though I did not know Stacy that well, I did know that she was such an amazing mother, daughter, friend, and overall person. Her smile would light up a room every time she walked in it! I know that Heaven has gained another angel, and that she is looking down watching over her husband and children because she will forever be here with us. Sending my love and prayers to the Barney family through the hope that they will be strong during these tough times.

DREW K, JANUARY 18, 2021

I knew Stacy from the neighborhood where she grew up and from school. We met through Lisa Hoover and we all had so many great memories. Swimming in Lisa's pool, going to parties, driving around in her little car. Lol good times! Walking around the neighborhood and just hanging out at her parents house. It's with a heavy heart that I write this, I'm not really sure. what to say. Stacy was such a special person, she was so fun and energetic. She was funny and was always the person to make everyone feel comfortable. Although I havnt seen Stacy since highschool, when my sister called to inform me of what happened I cried so hard that you would have thought that we had been close all these years; and as much as I loved Stacy that wasn't the case. P.j., Stacy and I talked on facebook this summer about getting together when she came home as well as other times. But as with many friends who we would love to see, it didn't happen. I wish now I would have made more of an effort. My heart is breaking for her family. For her parents who have now lost both their children and for her husband and children. I cannot imagine the unbearable grief you are all enduring. Please know, I think about you all every day and your in my prayers. I'm praying for the strength, healing, peace,. But most of all for God to comfort and hold you close. I'm so sorry this happened, I really loved Stacy, my sincerest condolences. Kimarie Martin

RAE CURREN, JANUARY 11, 2021

Stacy, you were an amazing mom, wife and friend. I'm thankful that I had the chance to know you. Your light will always shine. Every time I think of you it always starts with a smile. Then quickly moves into a giggle and laugh. You always being up for an adventure, the first to be silly and make us all laugh was contagious. You were always so put together, hair cute, make up or not, looked beautiful with a smile and always wearing one of the kids art projects as jewelry, proudly, was adorable. Every time I smell happy by Clinique I think of you. So many cherished memories that will never be forgotten. You will be missed and remembered. Heaven gained a special angel and we will have more shenanigans one day. Love to your family and everyone else that called you friend. Love you.

I am finally able to write something. Stacy was a light in my world and her being a part of our #tribe meant so much to me. She was always willing to make me smile and was oh so amazing when I lost my brother in law this year. I don't ever remember her not being part of our group at Cg, she was just there and fit perfectly with us! I loved her like a sister and was blessed to know such a special spirit. I will always remember her crazy dance moves and at Friendsgiving drinking and singing no matter who watched or recorded it! You will always be a smile in my life and I love you for that, all I can say is thank you for the times I had, I love you!

We consider the Barney family part of our family, and we were crushed to hear of her passing. We've known Stacy a long time, and loved her dearly. She was always smiling and had a real zest for life. My Lou's always looked forward to spending time with her over the 4th of July up north. LL said that he will miss her hugs and kisses that she would always greet him with, and sitting by her all the time. I personally feel blessed that I got to see her at her niece's wedding shower over the summer. You will be missed Stacy, and we send our love and strength to Craig, and the rest of the family. Love Always, Kim, Lou, and Louie Caruso xoxo

You were and will always be loved by many.

LORAIN FOSTER, JANUARY 9, 2021

Stacy - you were everything to me. My dearest friend, the older sister I never had, a mom-like mentor, my running buddy and workout partner, my camper, the one who willingly, without being asked - showed up to camp 30 min early each morning so I wouldn't be alone, my confidant - who knew everything there is to know about me and I knew everything about you, the one who carried me through some of my darkest days and trials, God placed you in my life and me in yours just when we both needed each other. I've never been closer to someone so naturally. You were the light I needed. You were always so silly, with no filters, and the most genuine person. You were an example to me of how God intended women to be motherly, empathic, loving, patient, kind, selfless, and servant-hearted, You will be forever missed and always in my heart and mind. I know you will be with me as my guardian angel until we meet again.

AUBRIANNE BISHOP, JANUARY 9, 2021
