Memorials

The 'Kress Family Women' would like to extend their deepest condolences to Steven's family. Although we were not blessed to have known him well, we do recognize him as a wonderful man, who helped raise an equally wonderful daughter. Cheryl, you are in our hearts and prayers, now and always.

We would just like to say how sorry we are that your family has had to come together for an occasion such as this. Our thoughts and our prayers are with you always. Should you ever need anything please do not hesitate to call. We all think that our parents are invincible. When one of them passes it makes us think of our own mortality and what our children will do and think. We love you and are thinking of you all. Leo, Barbara and Bailey

LEO, BARBARA AND BAILEY WHEELER, AUGUST 21, 2005

An ode to Steve: What can we say about this man, who always had a daily plan. He lived his life like you and me, the way Jesus wants us to be. His calls to me to talk about sports, and of other things, some out of sort. His smile and laugh, would bring us bliss, all these things will be sorely missed. Let us remember him for all the good he's done, all of our hearts, he has surley won. So to his family I hope and pray, that in God's hands he will always stay. I will miss you Steve. Love, John
