Memorials

Being at every one of my soccer games, driving hours to take me to out of town games. Hearing you yell at the T.V during football season. Watching Sponge Bob every night with Hayden. Being the candy man :) Miss ya Big Guy!

SARA M. ANDRADE, JULY 6, 2006

To the Andrade family. My heartfelt sympathy goes out to all of you during your time of mourning. Vince always had alot of interesting stories to tell and a voiced opinion on any subject. He will be missed as a husband, father, grandfather and friend. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

JANICE MANLEY, JULY 6, 2006

I will miss Vince because he kept my life interesting and challenging when it came to insurance matters. If nothing else I kept learning the business due to his inquiries. God rest his soul. I pray for Dolly and the children to be healed quickly. He is in a better place. God bless you.

THERESA COURTNEY, JULY 6, 2006

To Dolly and family, Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. God Bless You. Connie and Steve Bridges

CONNIE & STEVE BRIDGES, JULY 6, 2006

Playing chess (and losing), Playing Othello (and winning). The Bears games and the White Sox games. His phone call on my college graduation day. His misunderstood attempts to be the best he could be for his family and his friends.
