Kirk was one of my favorite managers of all time while 20 years in the Residential Construction. We worked together from 2003-2008. We chatted at least once a year and I hoped I would find myself working with him once again!! :(Thank you Sir for all you did for me!!! I will miss our chats!!! The last words he said to me, "Gene, I will never retire from this, what else will I do!" I feel you Sir!!! This is heartbreaking!!! RIP my friend!!!

CHAR MCKIEL, AUGUST 7, 2021

Kirk was such a valued member of the company we both worked for....Paul Taylor Homes. He knew home construction inside and out and helped me so very much during the 15 years we worked together. Even though I was on the sales side of things while Kirk was on the construction end, we considered each other to be teammates and his knowledge and willingness to help was always forthcoming and appreciated. Condolences to Kirk's wife, Judy, and his entire family. Many of us will miss Kirk immensely.

TONI STEPHENS, JULY 28, 2021

I am so sorry to learn that Mr. Kirk passed away. We've worked together for years and I have an enormous amount of respect for him because he always valued my opinions and advice. In a male dominated industry that means a lot. You all are in my heart and prayers as you struggle to find your new normal. Knowing the void that I fell I can't even imagine the loss that you guys are feeling now. Stay strong in your faith and keep his memory near.
